UNIVERSITY of NEW HAMPSHIRE
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

Youth, Families & Communities

UNH Cooperative Extension's Family, Community and Youth programs help families succeed by offering educational opportunities designed to meet the needs of people at all stages of the life cycle. New Hampshire residents can find resources for:

- Enhancing nutrition and keeping food safe
- Achieving family financial goals
- Parenting and quality child care
- Addressing the needs of limited resource families
- Developing the potential of young people through 4-H Youth Development programs
- Leadership development
- Learning how to give back to the communities in which they live
- Volunteerism
- Community needs assessments and action plans
- Life skills for adults and youth

Natural Resources

Cooperative Extension's Natural Resources programs focus on wise management and use of natural resources.

Programs include:

- Caring for New Hampshire's forests
- Sustainable agricultural systems
- Rural economic development
- Assisting communities with conservation of natural resources
- Coastal, marine and freshwater education
- Enhancing wildlife habitat
- Achieving farm and forest business goals
- Protecting land, water and open space
- Nutrient management to protect water resources
- Preserving community "rural character"
- Volunteer water quality monitoring
- Geospatial Technologies
